went off in front. Beaucaire lying on his flunk. Mason closed up nicely and ran Aratin took Besucaire back on the sixfurlong turn, but went along with Mason when that colt came on. Mason then dropped in behind the other pair and took all the mud they could throw. Mc-Kenna moved into a two-length lead on the stable turn. Turning for home Beau-cuire began to come on fast. Birkenruth took McKenna in clase on the turn. Austin awang Beaucaire wide.

Coming down the stretch, Beaucaire never was more than a length behind. Birkcr was more than a length behind. Birkcuruth was riding McKenna when Austin drew his whip and siashed around, and Beaucaire floundered. Austin quit riding in the last fifty yards and the horse gave up. With a good ride and a proper turn Beaucaire could scarce have lost.

LITTLE SCOUT IN A GALLOP.

At Beimar three weeks ago the track was muddy, just as it was at the Fair Grounds yesterday. Liftle Scout was givins to Taby Tora six pounds and was a ito-2 shot. Taby was 30 to 1. Taby won after a hard stretch drive.
Yesterday Scout, giving Taby nine to-2 shot. They was 19 to 1. Tany wor after a hard stretch drive.

Yesterday Scout, giving Taby nine pounds, was 2 to 2, and Taby 3 to 1. Scout loafed along for a half, then ran away from his field and won as he pleased. Taby Tosa was unplaced in the rock some twenty lengths inck. It never was a race. In the Deimar race Scout fald on him all through the stretch, with Sheehan whipping when in front. Taby Tosa never got close enough to be laid on yesterday. Sheehan did not whip. Scout fust ran away from Taby, as he should do.

Looking at yesterday's race and the race at Deimar, one could not avoid asking: "How in the world did Taby at 19 to 1 ever beat Scout at 1 to 27" Same rider, same mud-everything but the same betting. Had it even been half a race yesterday no one would have cared. To show how the bookmakers and public believed in the previous race, Taby was 4 to I and the horse be heat 2 to 2. Scout should have been 1 to 2 yesterday. Had he been, he scarce would have won. Such prices seem to handleap horses immensely. Hilee, at 4 to 1, ran the race of his life, Li4 at Delmar on Tuesday. Same boy, same weights, same distance, and track suiting him better, he ran last in 1.145, and did not run better than 1.17. He was I to 2 that day, which was the following Saturday.

BIRKENBUTH'S PRETTY RIDE. Birkenruth gave to Scepter, the 6-to-5 favorite in the first race, a dream of a ride, though he was beaten a nose. Scepride, though he was beaten a nose. Scepter was off in front. He usually leads such horses an eighth of a mile in mud such as obtained yesterday. Birkenruth railed him in third peace to the last seven-ty yards. There he hit him with the whip Scepter almost jumped into the clubhouse. He closed six lengths in as many strides, but was beaten an inch by the 15-to-1 shot, Interrogation. Had Birkenruth hit him another lick or moved another musche be would have won by a neck. Harry Birkenruth, take the head of the cluss. Willie Martin step to the foot. The ride proved Birkenruth the best fockey in the world. The others do not class.

KILLING ON THEORY.

KILLING ON THEORY. Theory, on whom Julius Leonhardt, late ommissioner for Plunger Kramer, bet un-Dan McKenna, at 4 to 5, won the fifth race from Monsieur Beaucaire and First Missen at the Pair Grounds yesterday.

McKenna led all the way and won ridden out by a length. Had not D. Austin taken Beaucaire very wide at the stretch cutry lost ten lengths thereby, and allowed the McDuff cult to flourder and flep in the stretch, the result might have been different.

The start was good, but First Mason, who was ueffire to the barrier when it went up, shied adways and lost some ground. He should have had to less of it as he was warking still. McKenna went off in front. Beaucaire lying on his told sums, won the second race in the ex-

Hayes's Horse Is in Good Form Now and Best in Muddy Geing.
Jordan looks like a 1 to 4 shot in the stake race at the Pair Grounds to-day. He has been rested up, is good, worked well yesterday morning and should beat the lot he is in with to-day. Light Opera will run an improved race on what he did yesterday. Mr. Burnett tried to get out, but could not, and says that his horse was not sharp-shod for the sloppy going. His race yesterday was not his form. He is clearly second best. Dave Sommers should be third, W. Hennessy will ride him, and Hennessy never starts until the bell rings in the betting ring. Sommers cannot beat Opera anyhow.

EL CANEY IN FIRST EVENT.

McKenna was even money then. Directly came the word. "Put D. Austin on Beaucaire." Immediately sagne one started a rumor that T. P. Hayes contractual employer of Austin, had bet £500 on Dan McKenna. The rumor did not say if Mr. Hayes bet of Austin was put up or whether he knew Austin was to ride Beaucaite. It is not even known for true that Mr. Hayes bet on McKenna If he did, he no doubt did so because he thought he was betting on the best horse. Mr. Hayes's fockey, took Monsseur Beaucaire anyeared to be closing fast. Those who defended to be closing fast. Those who defended with the public tipped.

Will Shelly has an outside chance, but is conceding too much weight for him. Tom Crabb is not the best midder in the world. Stand Pat is worth $1,000. Nobody else is worth $2,000. Then who should win?

A $18,000 WINNER

Imperious is a Burns Handicap winner, value $10,000. Nobody else in the last race has ever won $100 in a hump Hence Imperious, who is said to be good, should win. Star Gazer should be in the money, and Broodler may not be far off.

Wilstemina In Fifth Event, in the fifth race Wilhelmina seems best. Haronet will like mid, but is a bad horse anywhere. Sliver Plush's speed will assist some, but she should stop. Eliza Cook has e chance, and Helen Hay is not to be forgotten, if she is at a long price.

Gossip of the Theory race. After Theory got the verificit from Weilrd by a nose, Mr. Boloure ingression box of Mr. Leonhardt had the constitution of the money will be officed in the money and stand the best midder the point of the middle stands and stands and ran about six seconds faster than he did in his favorite poing. She gave Scepter, a fast and big more and a rare midder, twenty pounds and must have run five and one-half furions in 122, or two seconds faster than he did. Just how fast Miss Crawford would have run had Wallace given to her a good ride is not cray to see. The race was the fastest of the day, even such a modder as Aules failing to equal Atlas's line for six furiongs.

Dan McKenna, 2 3-year-old and a first-class horse, to whom Allas was giving twenty-nihe pounds, did manage to equal it. Mr. Schwacker got Atlas for $1,800. She best two $6,000 filles—Mise Crawford and Anne Davis.

when he knew he was to ride Miss Crawford, and induced him to mishandle the filly at 3.55, when the race was run, the evidence does not show. Mr. Darden said that his mare did not like mud and told his friends he was not going to bet on ler.

When owners have a $5,000 horse and are eager to win and to bet, they do not pick up any old negro rider at the last moment. They know days ahead who will ride for their money. They are not trusting valuable horses to incompetent boys picked up perchance and then betting on them.

The grave of the roung rider was covered with flowers, more than a carload of bloseoms being sent by friends from all parts of the country.

The New Orieans papers devoted columns to the obsequies of the little chap. His guardian, William Jordan, was much affected by the lad's death.

BOSTON DEFEATED PITTSBURG PIRATES

KENNEDY WEPT LIKE A CHILD.

'Old War Horse" Chagrined by Inability to Stop Onslaught Broke Down in the Seventh Inning.

RESPUBLIC SPECIAL Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 7.-Twelve thousand persons sorrowfully left Exposition Park this evening. They were those who had gone there to see the Pittsburgs take another game from the Bostons, One hundred and seventy-five others, led by a brase band and carrying "Cy" Young on their shoulders, left in an entirely different and provoking manner. They comprised the Boston "rooters," and thes were the happiest gang that ever invaded Pittsburg, for the game had been won by the Americans by the score of 11 to 2.

SHOWED SUPERIORITY.
The great trouble is that the result cannot be blamed on the umpire or any one else. It was just a case of superior playing on the part of the Bostons and stupid errors on the part of the three-time champtons of the National League, It is champions of the National League, It is really painful to go into the details.

Old Bill Kennedy, the hardest worker in the pitcher's box in the National League, had threatened to commit suicide if he was not allowed to pitch one of the games of the series, and, as he seemed good today, Clarke allowed him to go in. Kennedy was there with the goods. He pitched ball which would have won in nine games out of ten. He had all kinds of curves and speed, but he less his game through the errors which his teammates made to be in the case of the cub and the case of the cub at the collession of the State University that the Massari team would be repersented in nearly every event.

At the next meeting of the club, which is set for next week details of the programme for the meet will be decided upon. The occasion will be the first time the Western championships have ever been held in this city.

Bill was still up in the air in the sevnth and allowed a base on balls and four Women's Invitation Golf Tournament hits, which netted four runs. Then he was escorted to the clubhouse, crying like a child, because of the miserable support that had been given him, and Thompson took his place in the box in the next inning.

It will be either he or Veil against Hughes. The score: | Heatum't C 4 1 0 0 0 | Dough'ty H 6 1 1 0 0 0 |

Missouri Club Title to Be Contested for at Initial Aquatic Meet Sunday, October 18.

At a meeting of the Athletic Committee of the Missouri Athletic Club last evening, with Henry C Carnese presiding, it was decided to hald the first series of awim-ming races at the institution Sunday, Octoher is, and that the curd should be lim-out of ten. He had all kinds of curves and speed, but he lest his game through the errors which his teammates made behind him.

PIRATES FAIL IN PINCH.

Think of such book as a pitcher coming up in the third inning, with no one out, no runs on either side, and cracking out a corking two-bagger. He managed to get to third on the play, from Ferris to La Chance, on Clarke, and there he remained. Not a man on the team was able to bring him home, and he died there.

But the hardest blow of all came in the sixth inning, when ten batsmen faced Kennedy, and all on account of three rank errors, which were made, two of them, by Wagner, and the third by Leach.

After the errors had been made Kennedy's halloon ascended. When the smoker of hallon ascended. When the smoker of hallon ascended. When the smoker of the third by Leach.

After the errors had been made Kennedy's halloon ascended. When the smoker of halloon being for three bags. The first was made by "Cy" Young, and it was still up in the air in the saw by Dougherty, into almost exactly the same spot.
